The Osborn Home on
the Hudson, Sunday
June 25, 1896

My dear Wanda.

Mr Johnson & I
came up here last evening from New York & the change from deadly heat & dust to lovely woods & gardens & cool streams is delightful. Fine homes could be more perfectly delicious in sunny & snowy linen. And glad of the week to get ready for the Harvard day
next Wednesday

Tomorrow I am going farther up the Hudson
to meet Baugh's & spend a night &
day with him.

Then I go back to New York & then go to Cambridge

Tuesday afternoon

But if mother should be worse I would leave all & go to her.

I got from letter dated Jan 11, yesterday. I was glad to hear of the news.
I was very glad to
hear of the news.

Very many of the things are coming in but I can accomplish more in and more of news from the other with love to you & all I am affectionately
yours
